Amend an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the A.D. 1872, sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty for enabling Grand Juries in Ireland to borrow money from private sources on the security of Presentment, and for transferring to counties certain works constructed wholly or in part with public money.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling grand juries in 16 & 17 Vict.
a. 136.
 Ireland to borrow money from private sources on the security of Presentment, and for transferring to counties certain works "constructed wholly or in part with public money," (herein-after called the principal Act,) provision was made for enabling the grand jury of any county, county of a city, or county of a town, at any assizes, or if in the county of Dublin at any presenting term, to present, in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said Act contained, any sum or sums of money for the purpose of any public work which by law it is or may be competent for them to present (the estimated cost of which shall not be less than one thousand pounds), in order to obtain advances by way of loan from parties willing to make such advances:

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The term "public work" for the purpose of which it is competent for any grand jury of any county, county of a city, or
